

2023 Art Exhibitions

December 4, 2022
 through January 2023

AGAIN + AGAIN

PHOTOGRAPHY ART SHOW

A photography exhibition that invites recurring and fresh contemplation of the ordinary and extraordinary through the seasons of the Christian liturgical calendar.

March 5 through
 April 15, 2023

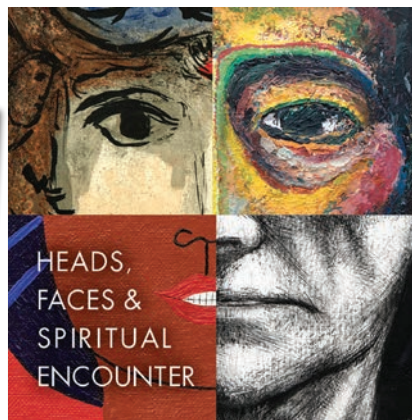

WYOMING ROCK ART

The staff at Fort Caspar Museum worked with John and Mavis Greer to produce an exhibit about Rock Art in Wyoming. The exhibit features 30 panels with history, interpretation and many color photographs to tell the story of Rock Art in Wyoming.

March 4 through
 April 1, 2023

The children's art showcase is an event to showcase the local youths artists and creative talents. The Art for this event is provided by the local schools and local Boys and Girls Club.

July 10 through
 August 21, 2023

HEADS, FACES & SPIRITUAL ENCOUNTER

It is hoped that in these forty-some-odd works, differing in conceptions, styles, and media, the viewer will find not only something that will arrest their attention aesthetically but also will intrigue them emotionally and intellectually.

May 20 through June 9, 2023

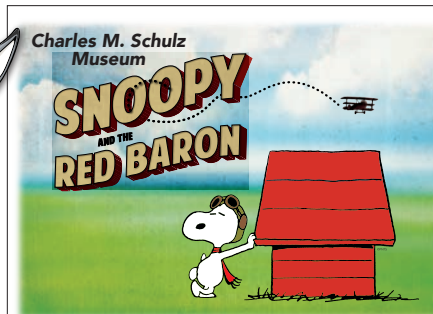

JACKALOPE CITY ART SHOW & Local Art Display

The Jackalope City Art show is our first local art show and competition! Categories will range from professional to beginners, with a child and youth category.

Charles M. Schulz
 Museum

SNOOPY AND THE RED BARON

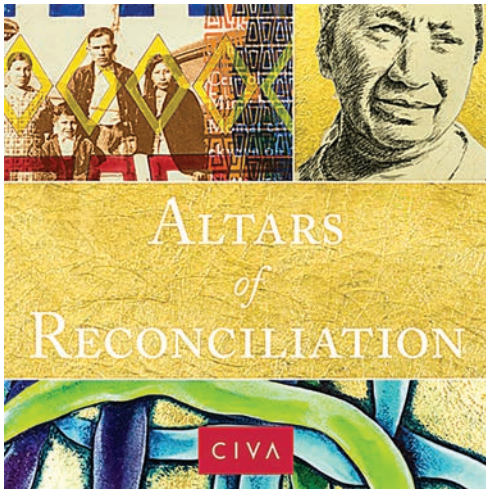

October 14, 2023
 through January 7, 2024

Snoopy and the Red Baron brings the full story of the World War I Flying Ace to life. The exhibition will delight fans who grew up with the Ace, and introduce new audiences to Snoopy's adventures in the sky.

DOUGLAS

December 14 through January 10, 2023

ALTARS of RECONCILIATION

Why would Native Americans believe in the religion of the invaders? This is a question the artists in this exhibition have been confronted with many times. As Native people who are Christians, we sense a deep paradox when asked this question. In Altars of Reconciliation, viewers experience contemporary, Native-themed altarpieces of sacred art, personal in their stories but universal in their struggle with eternal questions.

PSRRT STD
ECRWSS
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
EDDM RETAIL

May 1 through July 23, 2023

DREAMS IN BLOOM:

PHOTOS BY FARES MICUE

Dreams in Bloom is a plug-and-play, bilingual exhibition featuring the dreamlike photographs of Fares Micue. Set against a dark, mysterious ground, these self-portraits integrate natural and surprising objects in vibrant hues, documenting the hope and positivity of the human spirit. Offer your visitors an exhibition that celebrates the individual beauty of the human form and the universal creative optimism within.

GLENROCK

September 1 through
October 5, 2023

YOUNG AT ART

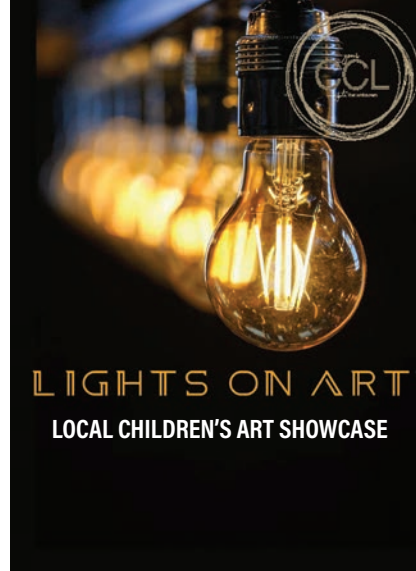

Through picture books, readers embark on visual journeys that engage all of the senses and encourage curious, imaginative, and thoughtful interactions with the world around them. Since 1938, the Association for Library Service to Children, a division of the American Library Association, has recognized the significant impact of art on early reading experiences, awarding the Caldecott Medal for excellence in this area.

April 7 through May 6, 2023

The children's art showcase is an event to showcase the local youths artists and creative talents. The Art for this event is provided by the local schools and local Boys and Girls Club.

November 1-30, 2023

LIGHTS ON ART
LOCAL CHILDREN'S ART SHOWCASE

Local
Postal Customer